Based on the reasons stated in your Petition, the court will schedule a hearing within 5-7 court days. It is discretionary upon the court to grant or deny your request for Temporary Conservatorship. If an earlier court date is required, you must also file form GC-112, Ex-Parte Application for Good Cause Exception, GC-112(A-1), Declaration in Support of Ex-Parte Application & GC-115, Order on Ex-Parte Application

FINALLY...

Attend Your Hearing

Show up on the date of your scheduled hearing. The Judge will either grant or deny your request for Temporary Conservatorship. If your Order was prepared ahead of time, the Judge may sign the Order and give it to you. You can then take the Order and Letters down to the Clerk's office to file. The Clerk will then Issue the Letters of Temporary Conservatorship.

YOU MUST GIVE NOTICE (Important!)

You must have the proposed Conservatee personally served 5 court days before the hearing date with the Notice of Hearing, GC-020, and a copy of the Petition for Appointment of Temporary Conservator GC-111. You cannot serve the documents yourself. You must have someone 18 years of age or older serve the documents for you. The server must complete, and file the Proof of Personal Service of Notice of Hearing GC-020-(p) which is attached to the Notice of Hearing, GC-020.

You must have served by mail, the Conservatee's 1st degree relatives (spouse or registered domestic partner) and 2nd degree relatives (his or her parents, grandparents, children, grandchildren, and brothers and sisters) 5 court days before the hearing date and complete and file the Proof of Service by Mail on pg. 2 of the Notice of Hearing, GC-020. You must also give 24 Hour verbal Notice regarding the hearing for the Temporary Conservatorship to the following people: The proposed Conservatee & all persons required to receive notice by mail. After contacting the required people, the server who gave the verbal notice must complete local form, Declaration re: 24-hour Telephonic Notice of Temporary Conservatorship and file this form with the court.
